

What We Do

Technovate Translations specializes in localizing software so that your content is understood by your intended audiences with no mix ups. We help your software shine through the way it was intended, helping organizations with successful product launches.

How important is user friendly software to your client's success?

SOFTWARE LOCALIZATION SUCCESS

Software localization could mean the difference between a successful international technological product launch and wasted time, depleted resources, and empty pockets. As more companies are moving their services online, it is becoming increasingly popular for organizations to create their own software to communicate with their clients. Computer software is favored when it is intuitive, creative, and easy to use.

SOFTWARE LOCALIZATION YOU CAN DEPEND ON

Technovate Translations offers accurate, high quality software localization services with fast turnaround and exceptional customer service.

Technology savvy organizations that are constantly pushing the envelope come to Technovate Translations for their software localization because:

- ✓ We work closely with our clients to ensure that nothing gets lost in translation and localization. This ensures cultural boundaries are respected, and not broken.
- ✓ We understand that software localization needs to be accurate and on time because products need to meet shipment deadlines.
- ✓ Our translators have professional experience in your industry. This means they do an excellent job of ensuring technical content is localized properly through clear communication.
- ✓ We offer a complete package. Not only do we translate and localize software, we also do desktop publishing and localize any associated materials.

We work hard to ensure that our software localization services are accurate so that organizations can smoothly launch their products. Come to Technovate Translations for software localization services that are high quality, on time and on budget.
