Technovate Translations – About Us

To help us stay on top of our two goals of quality and speed, we have based our business on three founding pillars: translators, people, and systems. Combined, these three pillars give us the power to deliver on our goals and create an exceptional translation experience on every project we work on.

Translators Pillar

3000+ Technical Translators

Experts in Target Language and English

They have passed a rigorous testing process

Members of local translation associations

Translators in obscure or rare languages that other agencies contact us to help them

All translators who work for us must be quality obsessed

Systems Pillar

Technovate Biz Commander™ (ERP) runs our entire translation operation efficiently

Automated workflow and project management optimization

Translator selector and on-time project delivery automation

Efficiently handles our emergency and rare language combination projects

Automatically handles our quality control function

Allows for smooth and on-time delivery of your projects

People Pillar

Friendly and helpful Project Managers

Our people focus on urgency and delivering quality service

We answer your questions 24 hours a day

Quickest contact time after quote completion (within 3 hours)

Our staff handles complex projects easily through our systemized approach to project delivery

We have offices in a variety of different markets which allow us to be a true strength for businesses and ensure accuracy of meaning across cultures and countries. Our clients are fortune 500 companies to medium and small businesses who want to work with a professional full-service translation agency. We ask for your business and invite you to experience the Technovate difference for yourself.

How do we Determine a Quote for your Project?

At Technovate Translations we have built a fine tuned operation that allows us to quote quickly and accurately. Our quotes involve both using our systems and people to derive an accurate quote you can count on. Here are some of the factors that we take into account when quoting your next translation project.

Volume Price

- ✓ More words to translate means a higher cost
- ✓ Price per word decreases as volume goes up

Document Type

- ✓ Simple language terminology means a better rate
- ✓ More complex or technical terminology requiring a specialist is priced at a higher rate

Language

- ✓ More common translated languages (Quebec French, Spanish, Chinese, etc.) is priced at a lower rate
- ✓ Less common translated languages (Dutch, German, Japanese, etc.) is priced at a higher rate

Certified Translations

- ✓ Translations that don't require certification is priced at a lower rate
- ✓ Translations requiring translators certified by the government or a recognized translation body priced at a higher rate

Delivery Date

- ✓ Translations with a normal delivery time based on a standard translator's minimum capacity is priced at a lower rate
- ✓ Translations that are "last minute", occur on weekends or holidays or that exceed a standard translator's minimum capacity per day is priced at a higher rate

Optional Services

- (additional charge)
- ✓ Graphic design and layout
- ✓ Proofreading
- ✓ Certification Services

Fuelled by Urgency and Care!

You have a lot of choice in deciding which translation agency you should work with ...
You're presented with a number of quotes ...

Why Choose Technovate Translations?

When you're trying to decide between translation agencies to hire it always comes down to PRICE, QUALITY and SPEED of the final product. At Technovate Translations we address these concerns individually and then as a whole to provide you with the optimal end result. You shouldn't settle for an agency that isn't able to address ALL of your concerns.

Guaranteed value for your money

- ✓ You pay for what you order, and nothing more
- ✓ Billing according to length, deadline, and complexity
- ✓ Competitive pricing - you'll never overspend with us
- ✓ Fuzzy Matching (word/phrase repetition savings) available

Price

Guaranteed Clarity is our #1 concern

- ✓ Accurate translations by real people, not software
- ✓ Guaranteed retention of meaning
- ✓ Expertise in complex document projects
- ✓ We focus on intent, rather than stilted or choppy word-for word translations

Emergencies are our forte

- ✓ Translators on-call overnight, weekends and holidays
- ✓ Superior translations in a fraction of the time other agencies take
- ✓ We don't clock out until your job is done

Speed

Quality
